Our SPACES

In grand surroundings, where well-preserved old architecture meets cutting-edge equipment, we are able to host your seminars, conferences, trainings, and cocktail parties. The options are numerous and customizable.

We are located 45 minutes from Paris, a mere 30 minutes away from the La Défense business district, and 40 minutes away from Roissy CDG airport.

THE SEMINAR ROOM

Our heated and air-conditioned seminar room can hold up to 70 people and is a unique, alternative study space located right near your home in the town of Méru, in the Oise department of France.

Various room setup options

70 people for a stage setup

30 people for a U-shaped meeting setup

3 or 4 groups of 6 to 8 people for a group cluster setup

THE HOUSE

5 minutes away from the hotel, we also host work groups in a more congenial, intimate setting, in an old house that has been specifically renovated for this purpose. It can hold work groups of 5 to 20 people, allowing you to conduct business meetings with clients or to set up a work day with your co-workers/associates.

Dining options

Breakfast

If you are staying at the hotel, we offer a breakfast buffet with a wide variety of options so you can gently wake yourself up.

For welcome breakfasts at the start of the day, we offer a selection of pastries and hot and cold drinks.

Breaks

We all need a break sometimes. What could be more re-energizing than a snack break to add a sweet touch to your conference or seminar? Juices, sweet treats, and hot drinks will all be on the menu, allowing your guests get their strength and oomph back.

Lunch and Dinner

We have several menu options to offer you for lunch and dinner, which you can enjoy either in our dining room or on our terrace, weather permitting.

Happy hour

Our bar will allow you to refresh yourself after a long day's work and to enjoy a pre-dinner drink either at the hotel bar or on the terrace.

The Tableterie Workshop

Catering Service

The Tableterie workshop offers customized services made to fit your needs for any study days, seminars, and/or private events that you may wish to organize.

Whether you want a customized cocktail party, lunch, dinner, buffet, or snack break, and whether you plan on having a few guests or several hundred participants in attendance, the Tableterie workshop can offer you personalized solutions that will fit your budget and specifications. Our team can also help you figure out logistics, decorations, entertainment, and more...

Cocktail parties

Our cocktail parties can be adapted to each of your events. Whether you've got 10 or 300 guests, whether it's more of a pre-dinner drink or a cocktail buffet, we'll work on helping you put together the customized cocktail party you need. Hot bites, cold bites, sweet bites... any and all of them can take center stage, here.

Sit-down meals

During a sit-down meal, whether it is lunch or dinner that's on the menu, we think it is important to take the time to savor every bite. We are keen on putting fireworks of color, texture, scent, and flavor onto people's plates, in a way that will fully awaken their senses.

Buffets

We are intent on meeting all of your needs and on finding a solution for any events you wish to organize. We work hard to figure out your tastes and needs so we can create buffets that will delight your taste buds. Stand-up or sit down, hot or cold, sweet or savory buffets, for big food-lovers or people who just want something to pick at... We can adapt to your wants and needs, in order to offer you a customized solution.

ALACARTE

Our teams have their hearts set on helping you to figure out how to best personalize your events. Being able to offer you customized events is one of our top priorities.

THE PLUSSES...

We are able to work with a transportation team if need be.

We provide in-room well-being services with a list of interesting treatments to choose from, for those who wish to combine work and relaxation (reservations to be made 24 hours in advance).

An "in-chair massage" activity is an option if you want to work all morning and then provide your co-workers with a relaxing activity in the afternoon.

We can also schedule a museum visit for you if you want to entertain your team and combine work with a cultural activity. We will introduce you to the unique world of the craft of Tableterie...
